

The future of Online Learning Quality: Panellist

Dr Debra
Ferdinand-James

Educational Technologist
and Lecturer,
Workforce Development
The UWI

Debra Ferdinand-James holds a doctorate in Workforce Education and Development with over 20 years of experience in post-secondary education (online and face-to-face). As a former Quality Assurance Officer, she has worked with industry partners for the advancement of the TVET sector. Her research interests include curriculum inclusiveness, blended learning, academic support, mixed methods, and Industry 4.0. She has presented and published in these areas locally, regionally, and internationally.

